Flexibility:

Your attention is drawn to the fact that in some cases, particular duties and responsibilities are difficult to define in detail and may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties and level of responsibilities entailed. In addition, it is a requirement of all employees that they accept levels of flexibility in duties and responsibilities and when necessary, interchange within the organisation which will meet the changing needs and demands of the service. Such a requirement will enable the particular expertise of the postholder to be developed and maximised to the mutual benefit of both employer and employee.

Review:

The job description is issued in September 2010 and will be reviewed regularly as part of individual and organisational development and performance review and may be subject to variation.
